

PRIVACY POLICY

While you use our service, you entrust your personal data to us. There is nothing more important than our relationship with our clients. Hence, our aim and obligation are to ensure the security and proper use of the personal data provided to us.

This Privacy Policy (hereinafter referred to as “the Policy”) applies to the website located at www.evercodelab.com (hereinafter referred to as “the site”). The controller of your personal data collected on this website is Evercode Lab, LLC (later described as “Evercode Lab”, “we” or “us”).

By using the site and providing your personal information, you consent to the terms of the Policy. Please read this document carefully and thoroughly, as it clarifies everything that is or can be done with the collected information.

WHAT DATA WE COLLECT

Evercode Lab collects personal data via internet cookies and a contact form.

Data Collected Automatically

Our website uses cookies – a small amount of data stored on your device. We use these cookies to tailor the site content to your preferences and to improve your personal experience while using our services. They also remember some of your choices on our website for future visits.

Data You Share With Us

When you contact us via a contact form, you share some personal information with us. Information will be visible and available only to the authorized persons of the controller. Whenever we collect your data in this way, you will be informed of it and asked for consent. You are not obliged to agree and provide us with this data. However, if you chose not to do so, in this case, we may not be able to interact with you.

WHAT DO WE USE YOUR DATA FOR

We use your personal data to provide and/or enhance the services we offer to you. We will use your information for the following purposes:

- to maintain, improve and personalize our site, products and services;
- to communicate with our clients by answering the questions customers have asked us using the forms places on the site or emails;
- to conduct the recruitment process;

SHARING YOUR DATA

We are fully aware of the terms of security, so we keep the sharing of your information to the minimum. Nonetheless, there are situations when we have to share your data with the third party. We will inform you of the need to make this data available to a third party on a case-by-case basis. You are always free to disagree in those situations.

We may also disclose personal data to those who work with us, including our agents, contractors, administration staff, accountants and lawyers in order to provide services to you. Please note that whenever you are contacting us via website www.evercodelab.com or our email addresses hello@evercodelab.com and hello@everchain.eu – the information included in such correspondence may be accessed by any of our Team members.

SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We take reasonable steps to ensure that your personal data is treated securely and under this Privacy Policy, and we require our suppliers to do the same. We use appropriate procedures and technical measures to protect your personal information against loss, unauthorized access by third parties, improper use, alteration or destruction.

Although we use specific measures to protect your personal data, there are many factors beyond our control that can compromise the safety of your personal information.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

We reserve the right to make changes to this document. We recommend you to check the Policy from time to time to ensure that you are informed about any changes.
